- 4/ Cleaning of Roads/Paths please see last item
- 5/ Netherwood Path flooded play area Councillor Chadha has spoken to Dept. concerned re work that was supposed to be carried out workmen have been going around with plundgers we need a lot more than this to solve the problem
- 6/ Street Lights Councillor Chadha see last item
- 7/ Inchwood No Ball Games sign this is now in place
- 8/ Bus Stop metal sticking up on pavement letter sent still awaiting reply
- 9/ Up Grading Elec. A resident has complained that workmen are arriving 7.45am to start this work
- 10/ A resident has complained about very bad pot holes from North Rd. St Maurices Roundabout to Bridge
- 11/ Condorrat Library Youths playing football on corner ground this is very dangerous as ball can go on road and cause a bad accident Con. Reynolds said police looking into this
- 12/ Letter sent in Feb. re B.Lees for the way he was dealt with at an executive meeting Nov.01 when Graffiti was discussed still no reply (Mr.J McCabe)
- 13/ Recyling this not working to well in some areas
- 14/ Councillor Chadha sujested that sec. contact Condorrat C/C re motorway upgrading as Condorrat C/C would like all C/C to get together on this matter
- * 15/ Councillor Chadha had a meeting with Mr G Whitefield Chief Ex. 10.04.02 and spoke about our problems listed below and why it takes us so long to get replys to letters
  - 1/ Graffiti A strategy to be worked out how to handle this problem
  - 2/ Street Lighting We should have a system that can pick up what street lights are not working without residents having to make phone calls
  - 3/ Leaflets about Dumping Household Goods why is it taking so long for this to be done
  - 4/ Flooding This problem is being looked into if there is a structural problem this gets done as a priority
  - 5/ Tractor this will be looked into
  - 6/ Youth Crime
  - 7/ Operation Clean Up 160 litter pickers will be cleaning up over 4 weekends in April
- * 8/ Community Council Minutes A new framework for reading should be introduced then surely we would not have items held over for months if dept. concerned with various complaints had to account for delays in handling the problems.

Mr. Whitefield to look into all the above and report back.
