Item 1. Treasurer's Report

Ian Morrow reported on the financial position of the Seafar and Ravenswood Community Council and also the Improvement Group. He advised that a planned purchase of a laptop computer will go ahead shortly, and that he has not received papers requested from outgoing Chair, Tom Reilly.

Item 2. Vice Chair's Report

Annie McFarlane reported that the community council had done well in the 'It's Your Neighbourhood' Campaign, and that we had a lot to be proud of in our entry which received high marks. Currently the members are working with Cumbernauld Living Landscape/Scottish Wildlife Trust to apply for part of a Community Benefit Investment Fund of £26,000 for upgrading of pathways in local woodland, among other proposed improvements to the area. Members are greatly looking forward to meeting with them and Sanctuary Housing Cumbernauld on 8th October.

Item 3. Previous Office Bearers Stand Down

Annie McFarlane, Vice Chair and Ian Morrow, Treasurer stood down and the meeting was handed over to William Homer, Vice Chair of North Carbrain Community Council who oversaw the election of new office bearers.

Item 4. Election of New Office Bearers

William Homer chaired the meeting whilst new office bearers were elected.
