

Banton & Kelvinhead Community Council
Minutes of Meeting
Held on Wednesday 29th April 2015

Item	Description	Action
Attendance	Ms Hoyle, Mr McKelvie, Mrs Stewart, Mrs Richardson, Deputy Provost J Jones, Councillor A Stevenson, Mr D Grey
Apologies	A Ferrie, Councillor Heather McVey
Minutes of last meeting	Proposed: Mrs Richardson Seconded: Mrs Stewart
Police Report	Police Constables had nothing to report. Mr Gray reported that dogs had been “worrying” sheep and that farmers had the right to shoot dogs worrying sheep on his land. He also brought to the attention of the local police that dogs had attacked lambs and had been removed to another relative. This raised the question of how safe dogs would be after attacking lambs, as they are now rehomed in a housing estate. Police agreed to look into this matter.
Treasurers Report	North Lanarkshire Auditors have not yet returned the Annual Audit. They are expected to be returned in time for A.G.M at the end of May. Banton Lunch Club received a grant of £100 in April for the running of the club
Matters Arising	Banton Village Shop Mr Singh replied to Community Council’s last letter. He does not want to sell the premises only rent them. Councillor Jones reported that the owner of the shop in Twechar was interested in the shop in Queenzieburn. Councillor Jones agreed to ask him if he would be interested in the shop in Banton. Sewage Problems On-going – residents must report any breaks in pipes in Kelvinhead. Out of Hours Doctor Service If you phone for an appointment and ask to go to Forth Valley Hospital 30% yes reply 70% no (depends on how busy they are). The Scottish Government may look at the regionalisation process again. Gas Supply to Banton Report of costing and process completed. On-going through the proceedings. Large Tree in Crescent On-going Mrs Richardson emailed and matter still being dealt with.
